“A Royal Rail Tour Across Karnataka and Kerala”

The Golden Chariot offers an unforgettable journey through the rich cultural and natural landscapes of Karnataka and Kerala with its well-crafted itinerary, “The Jewels of South.” Starting from Bangalore, this luxurious train takes guests on a 6-day voyage that blends history, architecture, and scenic beauty.

The route includes a visit to the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Shore Temple in Mahabalipuram, a remarkable example of Dravidian architecture set against the Bay of Bengal. Travelers then explore the historic port city of Cochin, renowned for its colonial heritage, ancient churches, and vibrant spice markets.

A highlight of the journey is the tranquil backwaters of Kumarakom, where lush greenery, calm waters, and traditional houseboats create a serene atmosphere perfect for relaxation.

Throughout the trip, guests enjoy world-class hospitality on board, featuring comfortable cabins, gourmet dining, and personalized service. Each stop offers guided excursions, ensuring a deeper understanding of South India’s cultural and historical treasures.

The journey concludes back in Bangalore, leaving travelers with cherished memories and a profound appreciation of the region’s charm.
